The Path to Perseverance

ELP Level 3 & 4
Students

“The path to success is usually paved with the bricks of failure.”

— Molly M. Cantrell-Kraig

In this three-week online course, you will practice your English skills by learning about how people have persevered. You will build and show your understanding through a variety of activities including reading, watching videos, speaking with peers, and writing in response journals.

Join us for a summer of online learning to learn how you can persevere and make an impact on yourself and the world around you.
